Analyzing the New $60 Billion Contract Opportunity

Bloomberg Government has posted a free webinar on dealing with OASIS multiple-award contracts (MACs), expected to become the largest professional services program in the federal government.

In late May, the General Services Administration (GSA) announced the final awardees on their long-awaited OASIS contracts. OASIS offers opportunities worth $60 billion in task orders during the next decade, but with significant uncertainty in the market, Bloomberg Government says.

Bloomberg Government, in partnership with the Coalition for Government Procurement, presents this free webinar that previews the structure, scope and competitive landscape on OASIS.
