Jennifer Campbell Joins Venable as Counsel in Los Angeles Wealth Planning Group

Venable LLP has added Jennifer Campbell as counsel in its Los Angeles office, strengthening its West Coast Private Wealth Planning Group. Campbell brings experience advising high-net-worth individuals, fiduciaries, and business owners on estate planning, trust and probate administration, and tax-related matters.

Her practice includes the design and implementation of estate plans involving revocable living trusts, powers of attorney, and gifting strategies such as charitable vehicles and spousal lifetime access trusts.

Before joining Venable, Campbell held roles at various international and boutique law firms and served as trust and managing counsel for financial institutions. She earned her J.D., cum laude, from the University of California College of the Law, San Francisco, and holds a B.A. in political science from Whittier College.

Campbell said she looks forward to working within Venable’s full-service legal platform to serve clients at every stage of the wealth planning process.

Venable LLP, a Global 100 law firm, has over 900 professionals across the U.S. and offers services in business law, regulatory matters, litigation, and intellectual property.
