

Julia Mann Named New Managing Partner of Jackson Walker San Antonio Office

Jackson Walker announced the appointment of Julia W. Mann as managing partner of the San Antonio office. Mann is the first woman to hold that position since the office opened in 1991, and the second-ever woman to serve as an office managing partner in the Firm's 132-year history.

"Julia represents the kind of leader Jackson Walker looks for and celebrates. She is committed to her clients and has a take-charge attitude," firmwide managing partner C. Wade Cooper said. "Julia's new role in San Antonio is a tangible example of how we're working hard to recruit, develop, and promote excellent lawyers who will be great leaders."

"Jackson Walker fosters an entrepreneurial environment that I'd like to continue. I am excited about this opportunity to help lead the charge in growing our diverse practice space to serve San Antonio and beyond," Mann said.

In a release, the firm said Mann has represented clients on both sides of the docket, appearing in matters in 40 counties across Texas and Oklahoma. She was named chair of the litigation practice in San Antonio in 2013, a position she will hold for the remainder of the year.

She has been recognized by The Best Lawyers in America since 2018, Super Lawyers since 2012, and San Antonio Scene since 2017, and Who's Who in Energy for 2012-2015. In 2013, Mann was selected to the San Antonio Business Journal "Outstanding Lawyer" list in the category of Litigation.

She received her J.D., magna cum laude, from St. Mary's University School of Law. Mann serves as president of the William S. Sessions American Inn of Court and as a member of the Nominating Committee for the San Antonio Bar Association. She is a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation and the San Antonio Bar Foundation.
