

Dream Hotel Group Appoints Laura Mutterperl EVP and GC

Hotel brand and management company Dream Hotel Group announces the appointment of Laura Mutterperl as Executive Vice President and General Counsel.

Mutterperl, with nearly a decade of experience in driving hotel strategy from a business and legal standpoint, will play a key role in advancing the company's growth, the company says in a news release.

The release continues:

Home to Dream Hotels, Time Hotels, The Chatwal and Unscripted Hotels brands, Dream Hotel Group encompasses three business lines: Proprietary Brands, Hotel Management and Dining & Nightlife.

"We are thrilled to announce the addition of Laura Mutterperl to our team," said Jay Stein, Chief Executive Officer, Dream Hotel Group. "With her extensive experience in hospitality and invaluable background in legal counsel, Laura is an ideal fit for the role of Executive Vice President and General Counsel as we continue to drive brand growth."

Mutterperl joins Dream Hotel Group from Starwood Hotels and Resorts, where she was Vice President and Associate General Counsel. At Starwood, Mutterperl served as a point person across strategic planning and implementation in business operations and hotel development. She also has extensive experience as lead counsel across the restaurant, retail and spa businesses. Based primarily in North America, she also handled matters in Asia and the Middle East and worked for a stint in Starwood's Asia Pacific headquarters. Mutterperl joined Starwood from Kirkland & Ellis, where she advised clients across private and public transactions, including mergers and acquisitions, financings, joint ventures, public offerings, corporate governance and other corporate matters.

“I am honored to join Dream Hotel Group as the company enters an exciting new phase of growth and development,” said Laura Mutterperl, Executive Vice President and General Counsel, Dream Hotel Group. “I’m looking forward to being part of the Dream team as we continue to expand the group’s new and existing lifestyle brands and operations.”

Laura Mutterperl graduated from Harvard College with honors and earned her JD from Harvard Law School. She joins Dream Hotel Group’s executive office in New York.
