

Michael Best Adds Litigation Attorney in Chicago

Sarah K. Lash has joined Michael Best's Chicago office as senior counsel in the Litigation Practice Group.

The firm said Lash represents clients in the banking and financial services industry, ranging from local credit unions to national banking institutions. Her experience includes appearing in both state and federal court in bankruptcy matters, residential and commercial mortgage foreclosure cases, title claims, breach of contract actions, consumer compliance, and replevin/detinue matters.

"I'm thrilled to welcome Sarah to our team," said John Scheller, Litigation Practice Group Chair. "Sarah is an outstanding addition and will enhance the scope of our litigation counsel for our banking and financial services clients."

In addition, Lash focuses her practice on SBA related litigation and compliance issues. Lash regularly publishes articles regarding SBA related compliance and regulatory issues and is a regular at the annual NAGGL conferences.

Prior to joining Michael Best, Lash was a partner at a Midwest-based firm, where she managed a team of attorneys in its New York and Chicago offices. Lash earned her J.D. from The John Marshall Law School in 2009 and received her B.A. and B.S., cum laude, from Ball State University in 2006.
