

John Storz Joins Stroock's Financial Restructuring Practice as Partner

John Storz has joined Stroock's national Financial Restructuring Group as a partner in the New York office.

In a release, the firm said Storz, who has corporate and bankruptcy experience, advised clients on mergers and acquisitions, securities offerings and investment fund transactions. He also has guided creditor committees and distressed companies through a variety of restructuring scenarios. Additionally, he advises institutional investors and has worked across industries as varied as biotechnology and manufacturing.