

Schiff Hardin Welcomes Tax Associate in Ann Arbor

Schiff Hardin LLP announces that Marcy L. Rosen has joined the firm's Ann Arbor, Michigan, office as an associate in the Tax Group. Rosen advises individuals and businesses on tax planning and controversies at the local, state, and federal levels.

Before joining Schiff Hardin, Rosen was a senior attorney in the Detroit office of an international law firm where she focused on state and local tax controversies and commercial litigation. In addition to her law practice, she serves as Co-Chair of the Federal Bar Association for the Eastern District of Michigan's Diversity Committee, Regional Board Member of the Anti-Defamation League, and as an active member of the State Bar of Michigan's Pro Bono Initiative.

"Schiff Hardin is a nationally renowned firm with a sophisticated tax practice," said Rosen. "With this in mind, I knew the firm was the right choice to take my practice to the next level."

She earned her J.D. (2004) from the University of Michigan Law School. She earned a B.A. in English Language and Literature from the University of Michigan (2001).
