

Justice Department Lawyer Defends Herself After Viral Video on Child Migrant Treatment

News

A Justice Department lawyer who argued in court that the federal government wasn't legally required to provide soap and toothbrushes to detained migrant children in some conditions is defending herself after video of the exchange went viral, reports NBC News.

U.S. Bank Fined, Ordered to Pay Remediation for Bankruptcy Filing Violations

News

The OCC said that as a result of the bank's bankruptcy practices, U.S. Bank "has made or will make approximately $29 million in remediation to approximately 22,000 account-holders."