2015 Perspectives on Anti-Bribery and Corruption

Aruvio presents a free on-demand webinar about enterprises and other organizations preparing for increasingly challenging anti-bribery and corruption laws and intensified enforcement (e.g., FCPA, UK Bribery Act) in 2015.

Employees, suppliers and partners can expose the organization to related risk and liability that results in significant business sanctions and costs as well as damaged brand and reputation, the company says on its website. No organization can afford to let this risk go unmonitored. An organization must clearly understand evolving regulatory requirements plus changes and shifts in enforcement actions. Part 1 of this webinar series looks at how you can ensure your enterprise is ready for this year’s anti-bribery & corruption regulations.
