

2021 Top 10 Trends in a New World of Risk & Compliance Priorities

While hindsight may be 20/20, how can we use this to gain foresight into 2021?

The last twelve months have permanently altered the role of risk and compliance—increasing it in scope and elevating the function to a top-of-mind priority.

Your profession is forever changed—and for the better. While some of the risks realized in 2020 were the product of a crazy year, many more were the inevitable result of longstanding blindspots, siloing and undervaluation . Perhaps 2021 will be the year we recognize risk and compliance cannot be narrowly defined nor addressed. Integration, context, and cooperation may be the best tools organizations have to course-correct and prepare for the next chapter.

Join this popular event with Kristy Grant-Hart and Carrie Penman for lessons learned in 2020 and guidance on how to use these trends to plan for 2021. They'll be taking your questions after the hour presentation.

You'll also receive the complete Top 10 Trends eBook the week of the webinar to help you stay engaged and prepare questions during the event.
