

5th Circuit Sanctions Marc Elias and Other Perkins Coie Lawyers for 'Redundant and Misleading' Motion

"A federal appeals court has sanctioned Perkins Coie attorneys who represent Democratic groups for a "redundant and misleading" motion in election litigation," reports Debra Cassens Weiss in ABA Journal's Ethics News.

"The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals at New Orleans imposed the sanctions on lawyer Marc Elias and his legal team in a March 11 order ..."

"The court imposed the sanctions in a case in which Perkins Coie lawyers argued that the elimination of straight-ticket voting in Texas disproportionately affected minorities."

"The appeals court said the lawyers filed a Feb. 10 motion to supplement the record that was nearly identical to a Sept. 29, 2020, motion that they previously filed. The earlier motion was denied."

Read the article.