

Adams and Reese Partner Lyndey R. Z. Bryant Joins International Association of Defense Counsel

The International Association of Defense Counsel (IADC) has announced that Lyndey R. Z. Bryant, a partner at Adams and Reese LLP in Columbia, South Carolina, has accepted an invitation to join the IADC, the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests.

“As a participant in the IADC’s 2018 Trial Academy, I am familiar with the IADC’s dedication to continued education, leadership skills training, and opportunities to network and grow through relationships with other lawyers,” Ms. Bryant said. “I am excited for the opportunity to get more involved with the IADC as I have seen the tremendous impact it has had on partners of mine over the years.”

Ms. Bryant focuses her practice in the areas of commercial litigation; appellate; financial services litigation (commercial and consumer); and estate, trust and fiduciary litigation.

Ms. Bryant currently serves on the executive committee of the John Belton O’Neill American Inn of Court and as a member of the South Carolina Women Lawyers Association. In addition, she is actively involved with the South Carolina Bar, including as a council member of the Trial and Appellate Advocacy Section, a member of the Diversity Committee, and chair of the inaugural Pro Bono Committee of the Young Lawyers Division. She also is a graduate of the South Carolina Bar Leadership Academy.

Ms. Bryant received her J.D. from the University of South Carolina School of Law and her Bachelor of Arts from Furman University.

About the International Association of Defense Counsel

The IADC is the preeminent invitation-only global legal organization for attorneys who represent corporate and insurance interests. Founded in 1920, the IADC has members who hail from six continents, 51 countries and territories, and all 50 U.S. states. The core purposes of the IADC are to enhance the development of skills, promote professionalism, and facilitate camaraderie among its members and their clients, as well as the broader civil justice community.
