

Akerman Named Florida Firm of the Year by Benchmark Litigation

Top 100 U.S. law firm Akerman LLP was named the Florida Firm of the Year by Benchmark Litigation at the tenth annual U.S. awards, an honor which recognizes the country's most distinguished litigators and their firms for their work over the past twelve months. Akerman litigators were previously recognized by the publication as "local litigation stars" in appellate, general, real estate, securities and white-collar crime.

The firm boasts one of the largest trial teams in the state and throughout the United States with more than 350 litigators across 24 offices.

"We are honored to receive this recognition from Benchmark Litigation, an achievement made possible by our clients, who everyday place their trust and confidence in Akerman to deliver exceptional results," said Scott Meyers, Akerman Chairman and CEO. "This award is a testament to the extraordinary caliber of our litigators and their commitment to providing our clients superlative legal counsel."
