

Allan Rotlewicz Returns To RumbergerKirk As A Partner

General Counsel for Anchor Insurance Holdings Allan Rotlewicz returns to RumbergerKirk as a partner in the Tampa office. He will continue to serve as Anchor's outside general counsel, while also providing counsel to clients in first party property and casualty defense claims. Rotlewicz worked as part of the firm's casualty litigation, insurance coverage and toxic torts practice groups from 2011 through 2017 before leaving to join Anchor where he continued his relationship with RumbergerKirk as a client of the firm.

Before joining RumbergerKirk, Rotlewicz practiced in New York after graduating from Brooklyn Law School in 2008 and earning his bachelor's degree in Political Science from Muhlenberg College in 2005.
