Amy Puckett Rejoins Bradley's Banking And Financial Services Practice Group In Charlotte

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce Amy E. Puckett has rejoined the firm as a senior attorney in the Banking and Financial Services Practice Group and as a part of the firm's Cybersecurity and Privacy team.

"We are thrilled to welcome Amy back to our Charlotte office and our team of highly experienced and accomplished attorneys," said Bradley Charlotte Office Managing Partner Christopher C. Lam. "Amy is a skilled attorney who adds significantly to our strength in key practice areas."

Ms. Puckett has diverse experience in the areas of financial services regulatory compliance, consumer protection, data privacy, and employment law. She advises financial institutions on compliance with the regulations of the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau (CFPB), as well as other state and federal regulations. As a member of the firm's Cybersecurity and Privacy team, she counsels clients on a variety of privacy and information security compliance issues, including data breach response and notification requests. Additionally, Ms. Puckett consults with employers on effective employment policies and best practices for employment handbooks.

Ms. Puckett was an attorney at Bradley from 2012-2018 before joining E4 Relief LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of one of the largest community foundations in the United States, as its vice president of Relationship Management and Compliance. She served as the dedicated relationship manager for clients, helping set up grant programs for companies to assist their employees during times of disaster or financial hardship and providing day-to-day support, stewardship, and philanthropic counsel.

Ms. Puckett earned her J.D. (cum laude) from Wake Forest University School of Law. She also holds a Master of Arts from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte and a Bachelor of Arts (cum laude) from Davidson College.

Bradley’s Banking and Financial Services Practice Group counsels clients on complex legal needs, including matters involving litigation, regulations and compliance, and diverse corporate matters. The group’s attorneys represent a broad range of banks, lenders, and financial services institutions across the United States.

About Bradley
Bradley combines skilled legal counsel with exceptional client service and unwavering integrity to assist a diverse range of corporate and individual clients in achieving their business goals. With offices in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and the District of Columbia, the firm’s nearly 550 lawyers represent regional, national and international clients in various industries, including banking and financial services, construction, energy, healthcare, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology, among many others.