Antitrust Treatment of Physician Practice Acquisitions

Practical Law and Honigman Miller Schwartz & Cohn LLP have posted a free on-demand webinar titled "Insider Perspective: Antitrust Treatment of Physician Practice Acquisitions," a discussion of the decisions in Saint Alphonsus, et al v. St. Luke's, et al and Federal Trade Commission, et al v. St. Luke's, et al, the first cases to address the antitrust implications of hospital acquisitions of physician practices.

Peter Herrick, Senior Trial Counsel, Federal Trade Commission; David Ettinger, counsel for St. Alphonsus Health System; and Stephanie Westermeier, General Counsel, Saint Alphonsus Health System offered their insider perspectives about these landmark decisions in which they were directly involved, including which evidence was most persuasive and counseling tips for future physician group acquisitions.

Watch the on-demand webinar.