

Armonk Attorney DeLitta Disbarred for Stealing at Least $1.5M from Clients

“Armonk lawyer Laurieanne DeLitta has been disbarred and ordered to pay nearly $1.5 million, and possibly another $2.2 million, for stealing money from clients,” reports Bill Heltzel in Westchester & Fairfield County Business Journals’ Courts.

“DeLitta misappropriated funds and engaged in fraud, deceit and misrepresentation, according to a May 19 ruling by five justices of the Second Appellate Division.”

“DeLitta had responded to five complaints last November by asking to resign as an attorney, admitting that she cannot successfully defend herself against allegations of professional misconduct.”

Read the article.