Attorney at Law Magazine has named Eric N. Assouline of Florida Attorney of the Month in its greater Miami edition.

Assouline is co-founder of Assouline & Berlowe, P.A., a business litigation and transactional boutique law firm. The firm's main practice areas are patent and intellectual property law; commercial litigation and appeals; real estate; labor and employment; international law and arbitration; creditors' rights and bankruptcy. The firm has three South Florida offices, and has served as counsel of record on many complex cases outside of Florida, the magazine article says.

The magazine tracks Assouline's career from when he worked on the University of Miami Law Review, then in the Miami office of Weil, Gotshal & Manges, and eventually opening a modest office in Coral Gables as Assouline & Berlowe, with partner Peter Berlowe.

"From those humble beginnings, Assouline & Berlowe expanded with an office in Broward, and later another office in Boca Raton," the article says.
