

Attorney: 'Old White Males' Ganged Up on Her. The Bar: She Used 'Terrorist Legal Tactics'

The Florida Bar hit Fort Lauderdale lawyer Ashley Krapacs with an emergency suspension for alleged behavior including "terrorist legal tactics" and "cyberstalking restraining order" in online posts about two peers.

The Miami Herald reports that the case started with Krapacs filing for a restraining order against a man whom she claimed was violently abusive during their relationship. The Bar presented an example from Krapacs' LinkedIn account that referred to one of the lawyers on the other side:

"Old White Male Attorney #2 steps up to the plate to harass a domestic violence victim with yet another baseless legal treat. Classy."

She also accused the court of being biased, according to the Herald's David J. Neal.
