Some Law Firms Have Misleading Employment Data

NewsAbout a decade ago, many law schools advertised somewhat misleading employment data. For instance, certain law schools listed the median starting salaries of graduates based on sample sizes that were unreasonably small so the statistic did not give an accurate picture of the salaries that graduates could expect.

Tyson Foods Will Pay $221.5M to Settle Price-Fixing Litigation

NewsTyson Foods Inc said it would pay $221.5 million to settle a price-fixing litigation with three groups of plaintiffs accusing it of illegally conspiring to inflate prices in the $65 billion chicken industry.

Chicago Attorney David Pasulka Arrested on New Sex

Assault Charges

NewsA prominent Chicago attorney already facing rape and sexual abuse charges was arrested again this week after two more women stepped forward, accusing him attacking them four years ago.

Visa Promotes General Counsel to New CLO Post

NewsVisa has promoted general counsel Kelly Mahon Tullier to the newly created post of executive vice president, chief legal and administrative officer.

Eversheds Sutherland Appoints New Partners in Charge for Four US Offices

AnnouncementEversheds Sutherland is pleased to announce the appointment of new leadership for our offices in Atlanta, Houston, New York and Washington DC.

Brouse McDowell Welcomes Molly Brown and Catherine Stone

AnnouncementBrouse McDowell Welcomes Molly Brown and Catherine Stone as new additions to our Business Transactions & Corporate Counseling and Trusts & Estates Practice Groups, respectively.

Littler Adds Experienced Litigator Gregory Fisher in Anchorage

AnnouncementLittler, the world’s largest employment and labor law practice representing management, has added Gregory S. Fisher as a shareholder in its Anchorage office. Fisher was previously a partner at Davis Wright Tremaine LLP.

Chamberlain Hrdlicka Continues Growth In Labor And

Employment Practice

AnnouncementChamberlain Hrdlicka welcomes Atlanta-based associates Joshua Smith and James Fielding to the firm’s growing Labor & Employment Practice, known nationally for its success defending employees against wage and hour class and collective actions

---

Saxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. is Celebrating 25 Years

AnnouncementSaxe Doernberger & Vita, P.C. is proud to announce SDV is celebrating its 25th anniversary this year.

Arent Fox Adds Customs and Trade Law Partner in New York

AnnouncementArent Fox Adds Customs and Trade Law Partner Angela Santos in New York Office

---

Littler Names Paul Bateman Chief Inclusion, Equity and Diversity Officer

AnnouncementLittler, the world’s largest employment and labor law practice representing management, has named shareholder Paul Bateman the firm’s first Chief Inclusion, Equity & Diversity Officer.

Inspire Medical Systems, Inc. Announces Appointment of Bryan Phillips as General Counsel

NewsInspire Medical Systems, Inc. announced today the appointment of Bryan Phillips as Senior Vice President, General Counsel, Chief Compliance Officer and Corporate Secretary.

Court Upholds $1B Copyright

Ruling Against ISP Cox

NewsInternet service provider (ISP) Cox Communications' attempt to reduce a $1 billion award of damages for copyright infringement has failed, in a win for music companies including Sony, Universal, and Warner.

San Antonio Attorney Arrested at Restaurant on Felony Gun Charge

NewsJonathan R. Perez, 30, a San Antonio attorney, was arrested on a felony charge Thursday for the second time in 10 months.

Biglaw Partner Arrested on Domestic Violence Charge

NewsJoshua Schiller or Boies Schiller was arrested on a domestic violence charge.

AZA Names 3 New Partners with Commercial Litigation, IP Heft

AnnouncementThree accomplished trial lawyers have been promoted to partner at AZA. They are commercial litigators Monica Uddin and Taylor Freeman and intellectual property lawyer Masood Anjom.

Orsinger, Nelson, Downing & Anderson Names Brad LaMorgese as Managing Partner

AnnouncementOrsinger, Nelson, Downing & Anderson is pleased to announce partner Brad LaMorgese as the new managing partner.

Shae Armstrong and Scott Beckmen Join Bradley as Partners in Dallas

AnnouncementBradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Shae Armstrong and Scott Beckmen have joined the firm’s Dallas office as partners.

Bria Burk Promoted to Director of Digital Marketing at Androvett Legal Media & Marketing

AnnouncementAndrovett Legal Media & Marketing, with offices in Dallas and Houston, is expanding its digital marketing and media capabilities with the promotion of Bria Burk to Director of Digital Marketing.

Ellen W. Smith and Christian Torgrimson Chosen for Leadership Positions With Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Atlanta

AnnouncementParker Poe pleased to announce that Ellen Smith and Christian Torgrimson have been chosen for leadership positions with Commercial Real Estate Women (CREW) Atlanta.