Wife Cannot Compel Husband to Sign “Non-Compete” in Sale of Family Business

Insights

The court considered whether the sale of the family insurance business, as ordered by the court, provided the court with jurisdiction to order the husband to sign a Non-Compete Agreement, as part of the sales contract, in circumstances where the husband resisted signing.

Is it Lawful to Advertise a Device with an Emergency Use Authorization Pending ?

Insights

In recent months, the Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has issued a record number of Emergency Use Authorizations (EUAs) under Section 564 of the Federal, Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (FDCA).

Attorney Steals $558,371.13

From Step-Mom for Gambling Debts

News

A woman whose step-son, an attorney, stole $558,371.13 from her was not entitled to a directed verdict in a case in which she blames her ex-husband for the loss based on his failure to alert her that his son by a previous marriage was addicted to gambling.

Lawyer Ignored Them for Three Years and Their $2.8M Legal Malpractice Verdict Keeps Shrinking

News

The court opined that a $1.1 million judgment for Vernon and Donyell Walters was too high and that the trial court will have to try to find a more appropriate figure.

US Attorney Bianca Forde Sues

Cops for Wrongful Arrest in NYC

News

A federal prosecutor was wrongfully arrested when cops slapped the cuffs on her for advising her boyfriend of his legal rights during a drunk-driving stop, a new lawsuit alleges.

Davies Group Brings in New General Counsel as it Furthers Global Push

News

The Davies Group, a professional services and technology firm, has hired a new lead for all legal matters as it looks to further its global expansion.

State of Nevada Agrees to Settlement with Department of Energy Over Plutonium

Shipments

Insights

A finalized settlement agreement between the State of Nevada and the Department of Energy regarding their shipment of weapons-grade plutonium was agreed to … by Gov. Steve Sisolak, Attorney General Aaron Ford and Nevada’s federal delegation.

Greensfelder Welcomes Trusts & Estates Attorneys Tony Westbrooks and Nina Windsor

News

Tony Westbrooks and Nina L. Windsor have joined the St. Louis office of Greensfelder, Hemker & Gale, P.C., as attorneys in the Trusts & Estates practice group.

Lawyer Who Told Client ‘I’m Done’ Faces $300K Malpractice Ruling

News

A lawyer will stay on the hook for a $300,000 malpractice verdict after walking out on a client who was unhappy with the way settlement talks in a divorce were going.

Lawyer Deaths and Series of Tornadoes Don’t Excuse Late Filing, Federal Judge Rules

News

The unexpected deaths of two lawyers and a series of tornadoes don’t excuse the late filing of an expert report on damages, a federal judge in Dallas has ruled.

The ONE Group Appoints Maria Woods General Counsel

News

The ONE Group Hospitality announced appointment of Maria Woods as General Counsel. She will also be assuming the role of Corporate Secretary from Chief Administrative Officer Linda Siluk.

Judges Slam J&J’s

‘Reprehensible’ Talc Defense, Cut Massive 2018 Verdict to $2.11B

News

An appeals court has reduced that award—but only to $2.11 billion, thanks to J&J’s ‘outrageous’ and ‘reprehensible’ defense of the product.

Venable Adds Team of Leading Complex Commercial Litigators to Its San Francisco Office

News

Venable Adds Team of Leading Complex Commercial Litigators to Its San Francisco Office

---

Impacts of the SCOTUS Decision on Title VII LGBTQ Workplace Protections

Webinar

As we celebrate LGBTQ Pride Month, join us for an important discussion.

Perkins Coie Adds Tech Partner in Seattle

News

David Daggett has joined Perkins Coie's Technology Transactions & Privacy practice as a partner in the Seattle office.

Simple Ediscovery Software for a Complex World

Insight

Preservation of evidence is a critical element of litigation and is the precursor to ediscovery and all ensuing negotiations and court proceedings.

Wirecard's Former CEO

Arrested in the Case of the Missing Billions

News

Wirecard AG's former chief executive officer was detained by Munich prosecutors after 1.9 billion euros ($2.1 billion) went missing from the digital-payment company, in a scandal that has rattled Germany's financial industry.

Judge Denies American Women's Soccer Immediate Appeal

News

A federal judge has denied a request by American women's soccer players to allow an immediate appeal of his decision to throw out their claim of unequal pay against the U.S. Soccer Federation.

Morristown Lawyer Charged in Mt. Arlington Corruption Probe

News

"A Morristown lawyer lied about making campaign contributions to Mount Arlington officials in 2016, a year before her firm was awarded a ‘lucrative contract’ with the borough, according to law enforcement officials.

Valero Energy Vaults General Counsel into CFO Role

News

Valero Energy Corp., one of the world’s largest oil refiners, will promote its top lawyer July 15 to chief financial officer.