Government Contracts Attorney Michael Hordell Joins Barnes & Thornburg in D.C.

News

Barnes & Thornburg LLP has added Michael Hordell in Washington, D.C., as of counsel in the firm's Corporate Department and Federal Contracting, Procurement and National Security Practice Group.

James Snyder Joins Sidley as Global Finance Partner in Chicago

News

James Snyder has joined Sidley Austin LLP in Chicago as a partner in its Global Finance practice.

FTI Consulting's Advice from Counsel Study Examines Data

Privacy and Security

Insight

Fortune 1000 corporations worry about budget, GDPR compliance, data security and other information fovernance initiatives, according to the 12th Advice from Counsel study from FTI Consulting, Inc.

For the Third Time, Supreme Court to Hear Mandatory Union Dues Arguments

News

The case, appealed by an employee of the state of Illinois, comes after the U.S. Court of Appeals for the 7th Circuit rejected his argument that the agency fee violated his rights under the First Amendment.

Mueller Gets Plea, No Cooperation, as Skadden Lawyer Admits Lies

News

Alex van der Zwaan faces as long as six months in jail under advisory guidelines, according to Bloomberg Law.

Midas Parent Company GC Gets Stayed Suspension for Unauthorized Practice

News

Florida requires a general counsel to be a member of the Florida Bar or to be certified as an “authorized house counsel,” but Brian Allan Maciak didn’t obtain certification until 2015, reports the ABA Journal.

Buchalter Welcomes Labor & Employment Shareholder Dawn Knepper