

AXA XL appoints Pamela Rosado as General Counsel

“AXA XL has appointed Pamela Rosado as General Counsel, effective 8, February 2021. Ms. Rosado will report to Scott Gunter, CEO, AXA XL, and will be based in New York, USA. She takes on the role from interim General Counsel, Anthony Recine who will return to the position of Global Head of Litigation for AXA Group,” reports AXA XL in their Press Releases.

“Ms. Rosado joins from MetLife, Inc., where she held the position of Senior Vice President, Chief Counsel Litigation & Special Investigations, responsible for all litigation and employment law matters in the U.S as well as the Corporate Special Investigations Unit.”

Read the article.