

Baker McKenzie, DLA Piper and Dentons Top the 2021 Acritas Global Elite Law Firm Brand Index

“Acritas, part of Thomson Reuters, unveiled the 2021 Global Elite Law Firm Brand Index today. Baker McKenzie retained the top spot for the 11th consecutive year, and DLA Piper remains second on the list. Dentons made the biggest move this year, up eight spots, from 11th to third. Linklaters was fourth, moving up four spots, and Clifford Chance and Hogan Lovells tied for fifth,” posts Jeff McCoy in MarketScreener’s News.

“In addition to Dentons and Linklaters, five firms increased their position on the index. The results highlight firms that benefitted from building long-lasting, trusted relationships as clients turned to them for strategic counsel and support. Additionally, firms with a true global presence, along with the capabilities to provide expertise and relationships on the ground locally, were able to strengthen their position in this unique environment.”

Read the article.