

Ball Janik LLP Welcomes Real Estate Attorney Doug Stanford to the Firm's Orlando Office

Ball Janik LLP, a construction defect and property damage law firm with offices in Florida and Oregon, is pleased to announce that Doug Stanford, Jr. has joined the firm's Orlando office. Stanford is a real estate attorney in the Construction Defect practice, strengthening Ball Janik's continual commitment to its clients.

Stanford focuses his legal practice on representing residential owners in the pursuit of complex construction defect claims. Prior to joining the firm, Stanford spent his career handling complex construction defect matters on behalf of owners throughout Northeast Florida. Stanford has significant experience in appellate matters focused on pursuing justice on behalf of owners in complex construction matters, including first-party property damage claims, contract disputes, and failure of real estate sellers to disclose latent defects.

Stanford is a member of The Florida Bar Appellate Practice and the Real Property, Probate & Trust Sections. He received his J.D. from the Florida Coastal School of Law, and his bachelor's degree from Georgia State University.
