Bankler Report: Congressional Tax Bill

Will you or your law firm practice be affected by this week's compromise by Congressional leaders regarding taxes and deductions if it becomes law (which is currently anticipated)?

Accountant Steven Bankler has outlined which "Extenders," both for business and individuals, are being made permanent, and also which "Extenders" are being extended through 2016 and which are extended through 2019.

In an analysis published on his website, he has outlined how those extenders apply to businesses and to individuals.
