

Barnes & Thornburg Adds Marcantonio Barnes to M&A Group in Washington, D.C.

Barnes & Thornburg has added Marcantonio W. Barnes as a partner in its Washington, D.C. office, where he will lead the development of the D.C. Corporate practice group, while advising clients on mergers and acquisitions, technology transactions, and federal contracts.

Barnes primarily focuses on helping clients execute their business strategies. His transactional work commonly involves the acquisition and sale of things – whether it is a company, product or service. In addition to his corporate and legal experience, Barnes has also held public service positions with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission, the Chief Counsel's Office of the U.S. House Oversight Committee, and the Fairfax County Small Business Commission.

He brings significant client relationships that span a variety of industries, including energy, financial services, information technology, manufacturing and retail sectors. The diversity and success of those relationships also reflect his passion for working with clients to ensure that shared values with respect to diversity and inclusion are reflected throughout the course of the representation.

Marco has also been a leader in diversity and inclusion initiatives within the practice of law, and was a finalist for the 2019 Chambers Minority Lawyer of the Year Award.

Barnes earned his LL.M. from Georgetown Law Center, his J.D. from George Mason University School of Law and his B.A. from George Mason University.

With more than 700 attorneys and other legal professionals,

Barnes & Thornburg is one of the largest law firms in the country. The firm serves clients worldwide from offices in Atlanta, California, Chicago, Delaware, Indiana, Michigan, Minneapolis, New York, Ohio, Raleigh, Salt Lake City, Texas and Washington, D.C. For more information, visit us online at www.btlaw.com or on Twitter @BTLawNews