

Best Lawyers in America Honors Four from Fears Nachawati

Fears Nachawati attorneys Bryan Fears, Majed Nachawati, Jonathan Novak and Brice Burris have each been selected to the 2021 edition of Best Lawyers in America.

Best Lawyers is the oldest and among the most respected peer reviewed attorney guides in the country. Selection is based on a peer-review survey that includes confidential evaluations by peer lawyers in the same and related specialties, followed by a rigorous vetting process by the Best Lawyers' research staff. Honorees represent the top four percent of practicing attorneys in the United States.

Bryan and Majed previously earned Best Lawyers recognition for their litigation experience. Jonathan and Brice, each recognized for their work on behalf of personal injury victims, are listed among Best Lawyers' inaugural "Ones to Watch" list recognizing attorneys early in their careers.

Fears Nachawati represents clients in a range of areas and has emerged as a leader in high stakes litigation across the country. The firm currently represents groups and individuals in matters related to the opioid crisis, environmental contamination, as well as dangerous and defective products.
