Best Practices in Construction

Jennifer Horn and Maria Panichelli presented the second webinar in their core construction curriculum series for Women Impacting Public Policy and Give Me 5%.

The free on-demand presentation, titled “Best Practices in Construction,” covers suggested best practices for before, during and after conclusion of a construction project, in the context of both state and federal contracts, the presenters say.

The presentation provides tips on contracting, documentation, compliance and claims prevention strategies.

Watch the on-demand webinar now.