

Biden's Granddaughter, A D.C. Biglaw Associate, To Marry T14 Law School Grad at White House

"Love will be in the air in the nation's capital this coming fall, when Naomi Biden, an associate at Arnold & Porter Kaye Scholer, marries her longtime boyfriend. Biden, of course, is granddaughter to President Joe Biden, and earlier this week, she announced on Twitter that the affair would be taking place," reports Staci Zaretsky in Above The Law.

"According to the New York Times, Naomi's future husband is Peter Neal of Jackson Hole, Wyoming. Neal is a third-year student in his final semester at Penn Law. You may recognize his name as one of the creators of My CARES Act Benefits, an online quiz that calculates eligibility for federal relief. He spent the past summer working."
