

Biglaw Firm Announces One Time Only Bonuses for Counsel and Senior Attorneys

"As Above the Law has written many times in the past, compensation for Biglaw counsel is a bit of a crapshoot. At some firms, counsel watch senior associates blow by them in total compensation. While other firms reward special counsel with the top bonus tier, or provide some kind of off grid," reports Kathryn Rubino in Above the Law.

"The newly merged Troutman Pepper decided not to leave its senior folks hanging. The firm previously announced special bonuses and raises for associates. Their most recent announcement focuses on the compensation of senior attorneys and counsel. Because 2021 is so unusual at least as far as attorney compensation goes Troutman."
