

Biglaw Firm to Hand Out Year-End AND Special Bonuses – If Associates Bill Enough

“The Biglaw bonus season is revving into high gear as firms are setting out exactly how much they appreciate their associates,” writes Kathryn Rubino in Above the Law’s Biglaw.

“... the market standard has pretty much been set – and it includes special bonuses that serve as an extra special tip of the hat for working during the wild ride that was 2020 – so it’s the small differences (like distribution dates and hours requirements) that make the most impact in categorizing a firm’s bonus structure.”

“On Friday, Kramer Levin announced year-end bonuses that match the prevailing market rate.”
