

Biglaw Firms Continue to Pull Out of Russia

“HSF said, in a statement, that it strongly condemns the invasion of Ukraine by Russia and that it is appalled by the humanitarian consequences. The firm is ending any work associated with the Russian state, it proclaimed, in accordance with its legal and professional responsibilities. Our,” reports Jerome Doraisamy in Lawyers Weekly.

“Moscow office has long been a valued and successful part of our business. We are working closely with the team there to support our colleagues who have been directly impacted by this decision, the firm said. We continue to advise many clients around the world on the practical implications for their businesses. We are supporting our.”

Read the article.