

Biglaw Partner Arrested on Domestic Violence Charge

“...Joshua Schiller, son of Boies Schiller’s Jonathan Schiller, was arrested ... on a domestic violence charge,” reports Joe Patrice in Above the Law’s Biglaw.

“...it’s another unfortunate headline for a firm in the midst of an organizational shakeup that’s seen mass departures as it sets a new direction after years of expansion. Schiller is serving as West Coast administrative partner as the firm’s California operations were curtailed over the last year.”

“Business Insider reported that Schiller was removed from a matter in 2017 based upon ‘inappropriate comments’ to an associate, but this is the first such domestic violence incident.”

Read the article.