

Bina Reappointed to the Illinois Supreme Court's Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission

The national law firm of Quarles & Brady LLP announced that Chicago partner Mark W. Bina has been reappointed to the Illinois Supreme Court's Attorney Registration and Disciplinary Commission (ARDC).

Bina will serve another year on the commission which is the state agency overseeing the licensing and discipline of all Illinois-licensed attorneys. He also sits on the ARDC's Hearing Board which serves as a fact-finder conducting evidentiary hearings for attorneys charged with misconduct, and also sits on the ARDC's Oversight Committee.

Bina is a member of the firm's Litigation & Dispute Resolution and Health Law Practice Groups, working in state and federal trial and appellate courts across the country. In his health care practice, Bina works on regulatory and compliance issues, including disciplinary proceedings, administrative agency appeals, fraud and abuse issues, internal and governmental investigations, subpoenas, and risk mitigation.

He received his law degree from John Marshall Law School and his bachelor's degree, with distinction, from Indiana University.
