Blank Rome Adds Sarah M. Luetto as a Partner in Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA – Blank Rome LLP is excited to announce that Sarah M. Luetto has joined the firm's Matrimonial & Family Law group as a partner in the Los Angeles office. Sarah is an experienced family law litigator specializing in both high-conflict litigation and negotiated settlements. Before joining Blank Rome, she was a partner at Hersh Mannis LLP.

"We are happy to welcome Sarah to our team," said Grant S. Palmer, Chair and Managing Partner of Blank Rome. "Her extensive courtroom experience and strong commitment to family law will be invaluable to our national practice. Sarah's ability to handle complex, contentious cases will greatly benefit our clients and strengthen our practice."

Sarah has represented high-profile and high-net-worth clients across a wide range of family law matters, including divorce, child custody, spousal maintenance, child support, and domestic violence. She is well-versed in handling complex financial matters, including the valuation and division of intellectual property, real estate holdings, and restricted stock units (RSUs).

A Certified Family Law Specialist by the State Bar of California, Sarah has earned this prestigious certification through rigorous examination and substantial experience. She is also a graduate of the Family Law Trial Institute in Houston, Texas.

"Sarah is an excellent addition to our firm and will be a key asset to our Matrimonial & Family Law team," said Kristina Royce, partner and co-chair of the group. "Her strategic thinking and exceptional advocacy skills make her a trusted advisor for clients dealing with complex family issues. Whether in court or negotiations, Sarah focuses on providing results-driven representation aligned with her client's long-term financial and personal goals."

"I'm excited to join Blank Rome's renowned Matrimonial & Family Law group," said Sarah. "Having worked as opposing counsel with several of the firm's partners, I have seen firsthand their commitment to professionalism and effective advocacy. I'm eager to collaborate with this talented team to provide top-notch service to our clients."

In addition to her legal practice, Sarah actively serves on the board of the Harriett Buhai Center for Family Law, a non-profit organization in Los Angeles that provides free legal services and advocacy to low-income individuals in family law matters. She has supported the organization since her time in law school and was recently honored with its 2025 Distinguished Service Award for her dedication.

Sarah earned her J.D. from the University of Southern California Law School and her B.A. from the University of California, Los Angeles.