

Bob Johnson joins USAA as Chief Legal Officer, General Counsel

“USAA has named Bob Johnson its Chief Legal Officer and General Counsel, reporting to CEO Wayne Peacock,” reports USAA Media Relations in WFMZ-TV's news.

“Johnson joins USAA from commercial bank Truist Financial Corporation, where he was General Counsel, Corporate, Commercial and Legal Shared Services. He succeeds Deneen Donnley, who announced her retirement from USAA in September 2019.”

“Johnson brings more than 23 years of legal and financial services expertise to the association, including substantial experience working with federal banking regulators in supervisory and government relations capacities.”

“Earlier in his career, Johnson was General Counsel at BB&T for nearly ten years, with oversight of the legal, government affairs, human resources, and corporate social responsibility teams. He also was part of an executive team that oversaw a substantial build-out of BB&T's risk and compliance organizations, and was the corporate secretary for the BB&T Board.”

Read the article.