

Boyd Johnson To Rejoin WilmerHale From Soros Fund Management General Counsel Role

“WilmerHale is pleased to announce the return to the firm of Boyd Johnson as a partner and key member of the firm’s market-leading white-collar investigations and litigation practices,” as announced on WilmerHale’s Insights & News.

“Mr. Johnson, who before his very successful previous tenure at WilmerHale was the Deputy United States Attorney for the Southern District of New York, will rejoin the firm after serving as general counsel for Soros Fund Management (SFM), a leading private investment company.”

“With his extraordinary background as a former top federal prosecutor, a skilled private practitioner, and a general counsel, Mr. Johnson’s role at the firm will extend beyond white-collar and litigation matters and into WilmerHale’s financial institutions and transactional practices.”

Read the article.