Bradley Adds Brett Lawrence to Cybersecurity and Privacy Practice

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Brett Lawrence has joined the firm's Charlotte office as an associate. He is a member of Bradley's Cybersecurity and Privacy Practice, as well as the Banking and Financial Services Practice Group.

"Brett brings valuable insight into data security, which is a high priority for every industry right now," said Bradley Charlotte Office Managing Partner Christopher C. Lam. "We are pleased to welcome Brett and know that he will provide strategic advice for our clients."

Mr. Lawrence focuses his practice on data privacy and cybersecurity issues, insurance coverage and professional liability matters. He is a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US) by the International Association of Privacy Professionals.

Prior to joining Bradley, Mr. Lawrence served as a law clerk to the Honorable Lucy Inman of the North Carolina Court of Appeals in Raleigh. In this role, he drafted and edited opinions and advised Judge Inman on several cases involving estate law, use permits, and auto insurance policies. Mr. Lawrence also worked as a legal intern to the Hon. Loren A. Smith of the U.S. Court of Federal Claims in Washington, D.C. Mr. Lawrence is a graduate of the Washington & Lee University School of Law and is licensed in North Carolina and New York.

About Bradley
Bradley combines skilled legal counsel with exceptional client service and unwavering integrity to assist a diverse range of corporate and individual clients in achieving their business goals. With offices in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and the District of Columbia, the firm’s nearly 550 lawyers represent regional, national and international clients in various industries, including banking and financial services, construction, energy, healthcare, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology, among many others.