

Bradley Attorneys Stanley E. Blackmon and T. Brooks Proctor Selected to Alabama State Bar Leadership Forum

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Birmingham associates Stanley E. Blackmon and T. Brooks Proctor have been selected to the Alabama State Bar's (ASB) 2022 Leadership Forum.

"Stanley and Brooks are exceptional young attorneys who have demonstrated the high standards of the legal profession in their practice, and we are proud of their involvement and interest in growing their leadership skills," said Bradley Birmingham Office Managing Partner Dawn Helms Sharff.

The ASB Leadership Forum is recognized as a dynamic and highly effective model for nurturing and developing leadership skills and values among a select group of qualified, promising lawyers each year. Graduates become models of ethical and professional behavior both within and outside the legal community.

Mr. Blackmon concentrates his practice on high-stakes and appellate litigation throughout the federal and state court systems, with a focus on legal strategy, motion practice and appeals. He has litigated a variety of cases, maintains an active pro bono practice, and has been recognized for his appellate work in Chambers USA, Mid-South Super Lawyers and in Best Lawyers: Ones to Watch. Mr. Blackmon is a graduate of the University of Alabama School of Law and received his undergraduate degree from Mississippi State University.

Mr. Proctor represents clients in a broad range of litigation matters, including contract disputes, business torts, general commercial litigation, and class actions. He has handled a variety of cases in both federal and state courts and has experience in all stages of litigation. Mr. Proctor is a graduate of the University of Alabama School of Law and received his Bachelor of Arts from Washington and Lee University.

A complete list of the current Leadership Forum Class can be found on the ASB website.

About Bradley

Bradley combines skilled legal counsel with exceptional client service and unwavering integrity to assist a diverse range of corporate and individual clients in achieving their business goals. With offices in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and the District of Columbia, the firm's almost 600 lawyers represent regional, national and international clients in various industries, including banking and financial services, construction, energy, healthcare, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology, among many others.