

Bradley Named 2021 Tennessee Litigation Firm of The Year by Benchmark Litigation

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Benchmark Litigation has named the firm its 2021 Tennessee Litigation Firm of the Year, which marks the second consecutive year the firm has received the award. Bradley was honored March 31 during a virtual awards ceremony.

Bradley was one of three finalists for the award, which recognizes litigation firms in each state based on the significance of their representations. The firm also was a finalist for Litigation Firm of the Year in Alabama and Mississippi. The state honors are part of the ninth annual Benchmark Litigation U.S. Awards, with nominees chosen based upon research conducted between March and November 2020. Benchmark Litigation determines its annual rankings through peer reviews and case examinations.

It was announced in October 2020 that 53 Bradley partners across all the firm's offices were recognized in the 2021 edition of Benchmark Litigation, which also listed Bradley as a "Tier 1" firm for Product Liability and Recall in the United States. A leading guide to litigation firms and attorneys in the United States and Canada and the only publication that exclusively covers the litigation and disputes market in the U.S., Benchmark Litigation "highly recommended" Bradley in Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee, and "recommended" the firm in North Carolina.

Nearly half of Bradley's nearly 550 attorneys are litigators who represent clients in litigation and arbitration in every U.S. state and in every federal district and appellate court across the country, as well as internationally. The attorneys handle matters in nearly every substantive area of business law and in a wide range of industries, including high-stakes and complex cases.
