Bradley Partner Receives 2019 Women, Influence & Power in Law Award

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP announced that Anne Marie Seibel, a partner in the firm's Birmingham office, is among the recipients of Corporate Counsel and InsideCounsel magazines' 2019 Women, Influence & Power in Law (WIPL) Awards.

Formerly known as the National Women in Law Awards, the WIPL awards honor general counsel, in-house leaders and law firm partners who have demonstrated a commitment to advancing the empowerment of women in law. The honorees were recognized at an awards dinner Oct. 16 as part of the Women, Influence & Power in Law Conference in Washington, D.C. Profiles of the honorees will appear in the December issue of Corporate Counsel.

Ms. Seibel is an award recipient in the Women's Legal Awards Category among WIPL law firm honorees. According to Corporate Counsel and InsideCounsel Editor-in-Chief Heather Nevitt, the award honorees are "business strategists, complex problem-solvers, and of course, great lawyers. But what particularly makes these women stand out is their personal dedication to the promotion of diversity in the legal industry."

A member of Bradley's Litigation Practice Group and co-chair of the firm's Inclusion and Diversity Committee, Seibel is involved with multi-forum and multi-plaintiff high-stakes litigation. Her experience includes trials in Alabama state and federal courts and New Hampshire state court, as well AAA arbitrations and matters in the Tribal Court of the Poarch Band of Creek Indians.

Seibel currently serves as managing director of the American Bar Association (ABA) Section of Litigation. Previously, she was co-chair of the Section of Litigation’s Membership and Marketing Committee. Her other prior national leadership roles with the Section of Litigation have included co-chair of the Regional Meeting Committee, liaison to the ABA Commission on Women in the Profession, and co-chair of the Woman Advocate Committee. In addition, Ms. Seibel is a founder of Bradley’s Women’s Initiative and is a former chair of the firm’s Associate Committee.
