Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Birmingham partner Brooke Vinson has been selected as one of M&A Advisor's 2021 Emerging Leaders. The 12th Annual Emerging Leaders Awards celebrate the industry's emerging leaders in M&A, finance and turnaround who have reached a significant level of success in the industry before the age of 40.

"We are proud of Brooke for being recognized as a M&A Advisor's Emerging Leader," said Bradley Birmingham Office Managing Partner Dawn Helms Sharff. "Brooke demonstrates a high level of leadership and service to Bradley and the M&A community, and we congratulate her on this honor."

Ms. Vinson primarily counsels privately held companies and private equity funds and their operating companies in formation, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate finance transactions, including securities offerings, divestitures, joint ventures and general corporate and securities law issues. She focuses on advising public and private clients, from startups to large corporations, in the areas of business formation, investment and financing transactions, securities compliance and other corporate matters. Ms. Vinson is a member of the firm's Recruiting Committee, and in addition to her corporate practice, she advises clients on franchise matters, including business structure and legal and regulatory compliance.

The M&A Advisor's Emerging Leaders Award winners were chosen from a pool of prominent nominees for their notable accomplishments in business and in service to the community.

An independent panel of judges reviewed submissions and selected this year’s winners, who will be formally recognized on October 20, 2021, at a gala during the 2021 Future of Dealmaking Summit. The complete list of 2021 honorees can be seen here.
