Bradley Partner Frank Caprio Nominated to Serve on Leadership Alabama Regional Council

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Frank M. Caprio, managing partner of the firm's Huntsville office, has been nominated to serve on the Northeast Alabama/Huntsville Regional Council of Leadership Alabama.

"We congratulate Frank on his new regional council role with Leadership Alabama in recognition of his many years of service to the state and local Huntsville community," said Bradley Chairman of the Board and Managing Partner Jonathan M. Skeeters.

Leadership Alabama is a network of established leaders across Alabama that also provides a structure for this network to seek mutual understanding of problems and priorities for Alabama's future. Leadership Alabama encourages its members to act, individually and in concert, to move Alabama forward to help the state reach its full potential. Since its founding in 1990, more than 1,500 citizen leaders in Alabama have participated in the Leadership Alabama program. More information about Leadership Alabama is available at https://leadershipal.org/.

Mr. Caprio is a 2004 graduate of the Leadership Alabama Class XIV. Members are selected based on their leadership abilities, career accomplishments, volunteer activities, contributions to their communities, and commitment to help shape a better Alabama.

Chair of Bradley's Intellectual Property Practice Group, Mr.

Caprio focuses his practice on intellectual property (IP) law and assists clients in the protection and use of their IP rights, and in the litigation of various technology-related disputes involving patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret and computer issues. He also regularly speaks about IP issues to business owners and lawyer associations. Mr. Caprio has held leadership positions in local and state bar associations and has served as a board member for the Huntsville Hospital, local YMCA, Biztec (business incubator), local Chamber of Commerce, Emergency Management Agency, and the Vanderbilt NROTC Advisory Board.
