Bradley Partner Robert Ford Receives Standing Ovation Award for Contributions to Texas CLE Programs

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Robert Ford, a partner in the firm's Houston office, has received the 2019 Standing Ovation Award from the TexasBarCLE for his exceptional contributions to the state bar's continuing legal education (CLE) efforts.

Mr. Ford is one of four volunteer lawyers to receive the award from the TexasBarCLE, which is the State Bar of Texas' nonprofit division that provides bar-sponsored CLE events.

"We congratulate Rob for his outstanding commitment to helping TexasBarCLE deliver important continuing education programs for the state's legal community," said Bradley Houston Office Managing Partner Ian P. Faria.

A member of Bradley's Litigation Practice Group, Mr. Ford represents plaintiffs and defendants in high-stakes civil litigation, including complex commercial litigation, trade secrets cases, fiduciary disputes, business torts, personal injury suits, product liability claims, and construction litigation. He also defends lawyers and law firms accused of legal malpractice. In particular, Mr. Ford has built a reputation in cases involving Chapter 95 of Texas' Civil Practices & Remedies Code, trade secrets cases, and motions and appeals under the Texas Citizens' Participation Act, which is the state's anti-SLAPP statute.
