Bradley Partner Sky Woodward Appointed to Maryland State Board of Elections

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that T. Sky Woodward, a partner in the firm's Washington office, has been appointed by Maryland Gov. Lawrence J. Hogan, Jr. to the Maryland State Board of Elections.

The mission of the Maryland State Board of Elections is to ensure compliance with the requirements of Maryland and federal election laws by all persons involved in the process. The board is made up of five members who serve four-year terms and represent both principal political parties – three of the majority and two of the minority party. The members are appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the Maryland Senate.

Woodward represents clients in complex legal matters, including class actions, environmental, commercial, and constitutional litigation. She provides risk mitigation counseling to her real estate industry clients. Her business clients have spanned a variety of industries, including commercial and multifamily real estate developers and property management companies, financial services companies, and product manufacturers.

Woodward previously served as a member of the Maryland Appellate Courts Judicial Nominating Commission, to which she was appointed by Gov. Hogan. She serves on the board of directors of the Helping Up Mission in Baltimore, as vice president of the Parish Council at Church of the Nativity in Baltimore County, Maryland, and is the past president of Maryland Defense Counsel, Inc. (MDC), the statewide organization of trial lawyers who devote their practices to defending business in civil litigation.
