Bradley’s J. Andrew Robison Named to North American Regional Council of World Services Group

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that J. Andrew Robison, a partner in the firm’s Birmingham office, has been named to the North American Regional Council of the World Services Group (WSG).

The WSG is a global network of elite global practice firms comprised of more than 23,000 members in more than 150 jurisdictions throughout the United States and Canada. Mr. Robison was named to a two-year term on the council at the WSG’s 2021 Annual Meeting held Oct. 6-7.

“Andy is an exceptional corporate attorney with innate leadership skills that will serve the WSG’s Regional Council well, and we congratulate him on this role,” said Bradley Birmingham Office Managing Partner Dawn Helms Sharff.

Mr. Robison is a member of Bradley’s Corporate and Securities Practice Group where he advises privately held companies and private equity funds and their operating companies in formation, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and corporate finance transactions. He also works with publicly traded clients in securities offerings, divestitures, proxy contests, and general corporate and securities law issues.

About Bradley
Bradley combines skilled legal counsel with exceptional client service and unwavering integrity to assist a diverse range of corporate and individual clients in achieving their business goals. With offices in Alabama, Florida, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Texas, and the District of Columbia, the firm’s nearly 550 lawyers represent regional, national and international clients in various industries, including banking and financial services, construction, energy, healthcare, life sciences, manufacturing, real estate, and technology, among many others.