Bradley’s Stephanie C. Gaston Elected Fellow Of The Texas Bar Foundation

Bradley Arant Boult Cummings LLP is pleased to announce that Stephanie C. Gaston, a partner in the firm’s Houston office, has been elected as a Fellow of the Texas Bar Foundation.

Founded in 1965, the Texas Bar Foundation is the largest charitably funded bar foundation in the country and is dedicated to assisting the public and improving the profession of law. Fellows are elected based on outstanding professional achievements and a demonstrated commitment to the improvement of the justice system throughout Texas.

“We are proud of Stephanie for her election to this position which is a testament to her professionalism and her dedication to the practice of law,” said Bradley Houston Office Managing Partner Ian P. Faria.

Ms. Gaston focuses her practice on resolving labor and employment matters for private employers, public entities and nonprofits. She also represents school districts and governmental entities. An experienced counselor and litigator, Ms. Gaston regularly defends companies facing discrimination, harassment, retaliation, class actions, and other claims under federal, state, and local laws, including the Fair Labor Standards Act, Title VII, ADA, FMLA, USERRA, and the Texas Commission on Human Rights Act. She is a member of the State Bar of Texas, the Texas Young Lawyers Association, and the American and Houston Bar Associations. In 2020, Ms. Gaston was recognized in Benchmark Litigation as a “Labor & Employment Star” and in Lawdragon 500 among the Leading U.S. Corporate Employment Lawyers.
