

Brian Corrigan Elected to the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel as a Fellow

Farrell Fritz is pleased to announce that Brian P. Corrigan has been elected to the American College of Trust and Estate Counsel (ACTEC) as a Fellow.

Corrigan, a Garden City, NY, resident, is a partner in the firm's estate litigation practice group. He earned his J.D. at Hofstra University School of Law and his B.A., cum laude, from Providence College. Last year, he named a Fellow of the New York Bar Foundation.

ACTEC is a national organization of more than 2,500 lawyers and law professors. Fellows are elected by their peers and must have more than 10 years of experience in the active practice of probate and trust law or estate planning in addition to an outstanding reputation, exceptional skill, and substantial contributions to the field by lecturing, writing, teaching and participating in bar activities.
