

Britney Spears 'Simply Adores' This Biglaw Partner

"When you're a Biglaw partner, it's not too often that you've got a celebrity client singing your praises on social media. Then again, it's not too often that your client is Britney Spears. Mathew Rosengart, the Greenberg Traurig partner who succeeded in freeing the pop star from more than a decade of," reports Staci Zaretsky in Above The Law.

"It has been more than a decade of conservatorship, recently clinched the title of Above the Law's 2021 Lawyer of the Year for his zealous representation in the closely watched matter. Biglaw's zaddy is still working with Spears, and she heaped many compliments upon him today after meeting to chat over lunch. Feast your eyes on this Instagram."
